SENATOR GORE TO VISIT STATE

Will Make Speeches
in Fifth District.

Speaks in Reidsville Tuesday and At Charlotte On Wednesday of Next Week—Will Probably Make Other Addresses in State—Comes to State
Under Direction of National Committee—Letter to Chairman Cooke.

The Telegram last night received a message from Democratic State Chairman A. H. Eller to the effect that Senator T. P. Gore, of Oklahoma, would speak at Reidsville on next Tuesday, Sept. 20, and at Charlotte on Wednesday following. An effort is being made to have Senator Gore make several other speeches in the State. It is likely that the Oklahoma senator will make another political address in the Fifth district during his stay in the State.

Chairman A. Wayland Cooke, Maj. C. M. Stedman's manager, has been in correspondence with the National Congressional Campaign Committee regarding the securing of Senator Gore's services in the Fifth district. Yesterday he received the following letter from Senator Gore to whom the National Committee had referred Mr. Cooke's letter asking that he be sent here:

I am in receipt of your esteemed favor which I appreciate most highly. It is my hope to make one or two speeches in North Carolina during the present Congressional campaign. I took the matter up with the Congressional campaign committee, but the exact amount of time has not been decided upon. I feel sure however that I can make one or two speeches in the state. It would be impossible for me to make as many as you request. I regret this, as I am exceedingly anxious that North Carolina should send a solid Democratic delegation to the Sixty-second Congress. The Sixty-second will undoubtedly be Democratic and North Carolina should contribute her full quota.

With best wishes for a splendid Democratic victory, I remain.

ANNUAL MEETING OF
W. C. A. LAST NIGHT.

Directors For Ensuring Year Elected—
Interesting Reports Made.

The annual meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association was held last night in the association rooms 118 1/2 North Elm street, there being a large attendance of the members.

The reports of the president and the secretary, Miss Florence Cain, were of a most gratifying nature and contained accounts of work done that the members would have believed it would have been impossible to do a year ago. The report showed that the membership increased substantially during the year.

The following directors were elected, the officers to be elected by the directors at their first meeting in October: Messrs. A. W. McAlister, Dorian H. Blair, Jas. J. Stone, L. M. Clymer, S. A. Hodgin, R. C. Hood, Chas. D. McEver, W. H. Osborne, John W. Petty, J. P. Turner, David White, G. W. Whittet, E. P. Wharton, Fred Odell, S. O. Melvin, J. B. Harrison, E. Bain, G. W. Ward, Dr. Harris-Glascow, Misses Linda J. Wharton and Martha Dozier.

Following the business session a delightful social hour was spent, this being in charge of Mrs. R. C. Hood. Several enjoyable musical selections by Misses Lessie Lindsay and Ruth Creech added to the enjoyment of the occasion. Frappe and wafers were served.

The students arriving now are old ones, the new ones having arrived earlier in the week. There will be no negotiations Monday, the day being given over to the arrangement of program for the first term's work. Regular class work will begin Tuesday.

A Large Real Estate Transaction.
Mr. John A. Hodgin has bought from New York parties a large farm south of town. This property was originally held for gold mining purposes. The deal was executed through the Southern Real Estate Company.

THE LIGHTING PROPOSITION.

It Goes Back to Board of Aldermen As Per Recommendations of Committee.

The North Carolina Public Service Company in the reply to the proposition submitted by the Water & Light Commission and special committee refused to accept the proposition and the whole matter reverts back to the Board of Aldermen, the power of the committee and Water & Light Commission ceasing when the proposition was refused.

The item about which there is a difference is the requirement that the maximum rate for electricity be fixed at 10 cents per kilowatt, less five per cent discount. The Public Service Company states this is less than they can afford to sell the current for and besides it thinks that this should not be a part of the contract as the city has no right to dictate the rate for private consumers. However, the company stated in the proposition made the city some time ago that it intended to reduce the rates to private consumers from 15 cents to 12 cents, less 10 per cent, to small consumers. From this the scale falls to 5 cents for the largest consumers. This rate is scheduled to become effective about the first of the year.

Mayor Stafford stated yesterday afternoon that he would call a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen for the purpose of deciding on a contract. The officials of the Public Service Company will be invited and the whole matter will be threshed out. Mayor Stafford stated that he believed the whole matter would be settled at the special meeting, which will most likely be held next Tuesday night. With the private rate clause stricken from the contract the remainder of the clauses will be agreed upon with little delay, the only other difference being as to the rate for Tungsten street lights. The proposition of the Public Service Company has been accepted by the city, with the above exceptions.

LITERARY STORY HOUR.

Two Hundred Children Heard Miss Troy
Yesterday—Interesting Reading.

The literary story hour of yesterday was a great success. Miss Troy's three charming stories were heard with delighted attention by a most appreciative audience of little people. 197 children were counted, and the entire number present was probably something over 200. The gentle and courteous behavior of these little ones throughout the afternoon was a subject of pleasant comment among older visitors to the library.

The library bulletin board now contains timely information upon the subject of Commission government to which public attention is most cordially invited. Readers will find there, in addition to the proposed charter here, the Des Moines charter, a copy of report of that city for the first year under commission rule, and a two year's file of the "City Hall," the official organ of the Board of American Municipalities. The library also gives quite a list of articles on this subject in papers, periodicals, books and pamphlets easily available for reference use. Reading room open 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.

TWENTY-THREE IN JAIL.

But Only a Dozen of the Prisoners Are Awaiting Trial at Superior Court.

There are just twenty-three prisoners in jail at present, but Jailer Apple states that he has no fear that any of his boarders will "skidoo" without settling their board bill. Only twelve of the prisoners are to stand trial at the criminal term of Superior court, beginning Monday.

The remaining eleven are Sapp Hogan, Tom Watson and Dave Whiffield, the negroes sentenced to terms in the penitentiary at the last term of court for being implicated in the dynamiting of a house in Warnerville and whose cases were appealed, five Rockingham prisoners, one federal man and two parties against whom judgment is pending.

The Cubs Won.

The Cubs defeated Bessemer avenue yesterday afternoon on the grounds of the latter by the score of eight to three. The features were the pitching of Murray, the hitting of Beasley and Jones and the base-stealing of Beasley, who purloined seven bags. Batteries, Murray and Sapp, Ingall and Aiken.

ELLER SENDING OUT LITERATURE

State Chairman is Hard at Work.

Thousands of Copies of Handbook Being Sent Out—Also Having Printed Quarter of Million Pamphlets Containing Democratic Views on Live Issues of Campaign—Speeches of Congressmen
Received—Mr. Poe in Honolulu.

Raleigh, Sept. 16.—Chairman Eller at State Democratic headquarters is getting out into every part of the State with unusual promptness the first edition of the North Carolina Democratic Hand Book, just from the printers. Five thousands and more copies are already gone out by fast mail and thousands of others are being gotten into the express to go at once to the county chairmen and other Democratic workers all over North Carolina. The volume is being pronounced here an exceptionally good one. Its opening and closing lines are significant and party workers say prophetic. The opening slogan is "Privilege must be arrested at Washington; Butlerism must be averted at Raleigh." And at the close there is the significant question "Have you heard from Maine?"

State Chairman Eller has just received from National Democratic headquarters sixteen thousand copies of great speeches of Congressmen including Clark, Dixon, Howard and Dolliver with great quantities of other valuable literature from the same source assured? Chairman Eller is also having printed a quarter of a million of pamphlets on a dozen or more significant political topics that present the Democratic contentions admirably. He is doing double work personally just now on account of Secretary W. E. Brock being detained at Wadesboro this week in a murder case in which he is interested.

In a postcard to a friend here Editor Clarence H. Poe, of the "Progressive Farmer" writes: "Landed at Honolulu today. Am having the greatest trip at all. Weather perfect and most interesting lot of passengers from the four corners of the earth." Mr. Poe is on his trip around the world in celebration of attaining the thirtieth year of his age. He is to be abroad until late in January.

Governor Kitchin has gone to Nashville, Nash county, to deliver a political speech tomorrow under the auspices of the State Democratic headquarters. He expects to be out of the executive office considerable time for a while now while the campaign is being waged.

POSTMASTERS TO MEET

Annual Session of State Association In Winston Next Week.

Winston, Sept. 16.—Something like 100 postmasters from the various towns in the State are expected here next Friday and Saturday, September 23rd and 24th, to attend the annual meeting of the State Postmasters' Association. All have been notified of the meeting and Postmaster Reynolds thinks there will be at least that many present.

Efforts were made to secure reduced rates over the railroads, but as the rules of the Associated Railways of North Carolina and Virginia do not allow this unless there is a minimum attendance of 200 by rail, the reduced rates could not be secured.

A speaker from the national post office department has not yet been secured nor has the program been arranged. A committee from the board of trade will aid in the entertainment of the visitors and there will probably be several social events.

The funeral of the 22 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Cheek, whose death occurred Thursday afternoon, was held from the residence yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. F. Staley. The interment followed in Green Hill cemetery.

FIRE FIGHTERS ARE INSPECTED

Gave Free Exhibition
Yesterday Afternoon.

Board of Aldermen and Fire Commission
Shown How To Act When a Fire
Breaks Out—Hose Laid and Water
Thrown in Short Order—Department
Makes Fine Showing and City Officials
Well Pleased With Their Work.

The Board of Aldermen and Fire Commission inspected the Greensboro Fire Department yesterday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock and the members of the two bodies expressed themselves as well pleased with the showing made by Greensboro's fire ladies. The members of the several companies showed the inspecting bodies how to hustle in case of a fire and the swiftness with which they laid lines of hose and made water connections almost dazzled the officials.

As the truck company could not throw water they ran their wagon alongside the cigar factory and in a jiffy had raised the ladder and a man was standing opposite the third story window ready to direct the nozzle had it been necessary to do so. Not to be outdone Engine Cox hauled the engine out and put on full steam as if to see just how far the engine would throw water. However, he was afraid to throw the water in the thickly settled portion of the city so the engine was carried out North Elm for a tryout.

At 5:30 an alarm was turned in from box 15 and the entire department, which had gathered on Gaston street, drove up Green to Market, on to Elm and back into Gaston. The wagons then lined up at Elm street and ran a block, coupling with the hydrant at Green street. While no record was attempted the boys showed water in almost the time it takes to tell it. Every man showed that in case of fire he knew how to get into the fight in the least possible time.

The exhibition was witnessed by hundreds of people and some little fun was picked up by a number. "Where is the fire?" asked one man as he dashed up almost breathless. "On the end of Ed. Bain's cigar," coolly returned an earlier arrival, while the crowd gave the question the hee haw.

The exhibition showed that the members of the department are ever ready to combat the flames and that they keep in sufficient practice to get at a fire with the least possible delay in case a fire should break out. The officials were highly pleased with the work of the fire fighters and the manner in which they handled the fire fighting apparatus.

Entertained Sunday School Class.

Mrs. H. W. Wharton delightfully entertained her class of young ladies of the Bessemer Avenue Presbyterian Sunday school last evening at her home on North Elm street. Every member of the class had been instructed to bring a young man and just twenty-three of the members followed the instructions given. The affair was in the nature of a lawn party, but Mrs. Wharton skillfully bringing it into a watermelon party by bringing forth a number of melons. During the evening a number of games were played and the occasion was most enjoyable.

ORANGE PRESBYTERY.

Session Held In Alamance County This Week—Meet Next In Durham.

The Greensboro ministers and laymen who attended the sessions of Orange Presbytery at Hawfields, Alamance county, this week have returned to the city. The Presbytery met on Tuesday afternoon and concluded its work Thursday afternoon. It was decided to hold the next session of the Presbytery in the Presbyterian church in Durham in April 1911.

Those who represented the Presbyterian churches of the city at the Presbytery were First, Rev. Melton Clark and S. A. Kerr; Westminster, Rev. C. E. Hodgin and T. G. McLean; Buffalo, Rev. J. W. Goodman and J. A. Rankin; Bessemer, Rev. R. M. Williams, supply pastor, and H. C. Crowder; Church of the Covenant, Rev. R. M. Williams.

The opening session was presided over by the moderator, Mr. McBride Holt, of Graham, Rev. J. A. Gilmer, of Mt. Airy, being chosen as the new moderator. Dr. E. C. Murray, of Graham, preached the opening sermon. Revs. J. W. Goodman and J. T. Carr were made clerks. The reports received from the several churches in the Presbytery were of a most encouraging nature.

As the truck company could not throw water they ran their wagon alongside the cigar factory and in a jiffy had raised the ladder and a man was standing opposite the third story window ready to direct the nozzle had it been necessary to do so. Not to be outdone Engine Cox hauled the engine out and put on full steam as if to see just how far the engine would throw water. Utah Democrats Want Prohibition.
Provo, Utah, Sept. 16.—The Democratic State platform adopted at the State convention here last night demands a prohibition law, direct primary elections, the election of United States senators by popular vote, the initiative and referendum and recall and a tariff commission. The conservation plank advocated co-operation by the state and national governments and the widest use of public lands for settlement and mining.

Now, I live at the St. Francis hotel," said Rickard at the booking desk, "and I deny keeping a cow in my apartment."

"Are you paying the duty under protest?" a reporter asked.
"No, no," said Miss Milholland. "I am very willing to pay it. Please don't say anything about this."

She paid $102 custom duties.

Before Judge Eure.

There were but few cases on the docket in Municipal Court yesterday morning and all of these, excepting a drunk, were continued from Tuesday. Gullie Freeman was required to pay into the county school fund the sum of $5 in addition to the costs in a case charging him with an assault. A no pros was taken in the case against Lou Lindsay. The case against Len Stout and Sylvester Spaulding, the boys who were convicted of forcible trespass Tuesday, was continued until Monday in order that the Training School at Concord might be communicated with.

DIABETES

It was not easy for us to believe that Diabetes is incurable, but the first case we came in personal touch with was astonishingly convincing.

We were considering the purchasing of Fulton's Compound and were looking for cases to try them out on. One of our number knew Charles A. Newton, the yardmaster of the S. P. R. R. Co. at Sacramento—a very worthy man. He also knew that Newton had Diabetes and was in a hospital in the Capitol City, and that his recovery seemed impossible when he last heard from him.

A letter was written to Newton that Fulton claimed his Diabetes Compound cured Diabetes and that we wanted to know from OUR friends if this was so, and that if he (Newton) would take it that we would send him a supply of it. Newton replied to the effect that some four or five months before we wrote him he had heard about the compound, had taken it, that the sugar was nearly out and he was almost well. His complete recovery followed, and he told an S. P. engineer who had Diabetes he recovered.

We also saw Gen. Theo. Rechert, of San Francisco, go on this treatment and get a complete recovery after physicians had declared that the case was hopeless. Gen. Rechert is a 33rd degree Mason and is one of San Francisco's most widely and favorably known citizens.

We have seen hundreds recover since and there is no longer any question about Diabetes in people of middle age and over being curable.

For free literature, address John J. Fulton Co., 645 Battery street, San Francisco, Cal.

Fulton's Diabetes Compound can be had of our agent in your city.

We desire all patients to write us who are not noting the usual improvement by the third week.

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Greenboro Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidney, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here is proof in the statement of a nearby resident.

F. M. York, Shelton street, High Point, N. C. says: "Several years ago I suffered severely from pains across the small of my back and I was so lame at times that I could hardly arise from a sitting position. The kidney secretions were unnatural and caused me a great deal of annoyance. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a supply and began their use. Several boxes banished the pains in my back and restored my kidneys to a normal condition. I always keep Doan's Kidney Pills in the house, as I know they are a reliable kidney remedy."

WOMAN FOR CONGRESS.

Mrs. Frances Beauchamp, of Lexington, Ky., expects to be elected from her District.

New York Press.

Mrs. Frances Beauchamp, of Lexington, Ky., president of the State Woman's Christian Temperance Union, is a candidate for Congress in the Seventh Congressional district against J. Campbell Cantrill, Democrat, and M. C. Rankin, Republican. She is appealing to the chivalry of the citizens to vote for her.

She is running on the independent ticket. Her platform contains drastic protestations against liquor, tobacco and the "white slave" traffic. She qualifies her tobacco plank by saying that as between the Tobacco Trust and the farmer she is for the farmer. "This is a fight that should arouse the chivalry of all men," she says, "and I shall go through the district making a direct appeal to the voters to support me not only because of the principles which I advocate, but also on the ground of chivalry. I am making a fight for their interests, and I am confident that they will look upon my candidacy in that light. I am eligible to serve in Congress, because there is nothing in the Constitution that prevents me from helping to make the laws. This question must be settled some time or other; and now is the time for it. I am confident that the voters throughout the district will see the justness of my fight and will vote for me."

Mrs. Beauchamp has been a zealous worker for temperance for many years, and is one of the most influential club-women in the State.

AND IT WAS A NANNY GOAT.

Boy Killed it to Get $10 Bill; Uncle Sam Makes Good; Not Wit's Goat.

Washington, Sept. 14.—This tale of a goat is arranged chronologically:

A woman in Detroit wanted a new hat and drew a ten dollar bill out of a bank. A gust of wind whisked it out of her hand.

A small boy, driving a nanny goat in a cart, happened by and the ten fluttered under the nanny's nose.

Nanny gobbled the bill. The woman accused the boy of stealing it.

By the time a policeman arrived the goat had swallowed it.

The boy proved his innocence and recovered the remains of the bill by killing nanny.

The Treasury Department has issued a new bill, but cannot issue a new goat.

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," It is probably better FOR HIM—it pays better. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

A Scapegoat

By ALBERT TUCKER KENYON
Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

There is a body of troops in France called the foreign legion. It is composed of men of all nationalities, most of them fugitives from justice. That a man is in it is prima facie evidence that he has an object for losing himself to the rest of the world.

A soldier in the foreign legion conspicuous for his refined appearance passed under the name of Franz Ludwig. He would not admit the country from which he hailed, and since he spoke several languages equally well it was impossible for any one to fix upon the land of his nativity.

This is the story of the so called Franz Ludwig:

His real name was Count Joseph Zadsky. He had been honored by the intimate friendship of the crown prince of his native land. The prince and he roamed together, hunted together—in short, all their amusements were in common. The count was engaged to marry the Baroness Sophia, daughter of a prominent member of the sovereign's household.

The crown prince was possessed by a passion for gambling. He did not attend the public gambling places so plentiful in Europe. His habit was to play either in his own palace or wherever he was invited. One afternoon he was playing in the home of a nobleman where a house party had been invited to meet him. The prince was playing with bad luck and was drinking heavily. Several of the guests were also under the influence of liquor. Count Zadsky was present and, fearing that something would occur to create a scandal, begged his royal highness to retire from the game. The prince refused, and the game went on.

The excitement increased, both with the increase of stakes and spirits consumed. But now the prince was winning. "These cards are marked," suddenly shouted one of the party. "There are little protuberances on their backs." "If you can feel them," said Zadsky, "you must have cut down the skin of one of your fingers for the purpose. And if you have done that you have introduced the cards into the game."

Amid a hubbub the cards were examined and were found to have been made for the purpose of swindling. Then Zadsky said:

"All show the tips of your fingers."

Every man present made the display except the crown prince. His expression betrayed him, but his tongue came to his defense.

"Gentlemen," he said, "do you ask the heir apparent to the throne to exonerate himself from cheating at cards?"

Zadsky was dumfounded. There was silence. Then the party arose from the table and separated.

The story got out, and the privy council was convened to consider what action should be taken. Some way of exonerating the prince must be devised. The people were loyal to the crown, but it would never do for one who must soon sit upon the throne to appear before the people as a user of marked cards. The council assembled and, summoning all the men who had been of the gambling party, examined them separately.

When Count Zadsky was examined one of the first questions asked was this:

"How did you know that gamblers using such cards as were used on this occasion pare the tips of their fingers to make them sensitive to the touch?"

"I knew it, as I know of any other fact of which I have heard."

"You were the person who announced the fact that pared finger tips go with these cards to the party, were you not?"

"I was."

"And called upon the others, including his royal highness, to show their fingers?"

"I did."

"That will do."

The council after examining the witnesses continued its deliberations in secret and broke up without giving out any information as to its conclusions.

But the next morning Zadsky was banished from the court, and the people breathed freely once more that their prospective ruler had been vindicated.

"What does it mean?" asked his captain.

"Have you not heard that the crown prince of — is dead?"

"Yes. It is given out that he died of an aneurism, but it has been said that he committed suicide after a debauch. But what has that to do with your discharge?"

"That will do."

"Count Zadsky's prophecy was verified. He returned to the capital, was appointed as he predicted and married the Baroness Sophia."

"That's all."

Count Zadsky's prophecy was verified. He returned to the capital, was appointed as he predicted and married the Baroness Sophia.

It will soon be known just to what extent the football rules have been democratized.

The Mt. Airy News of this week comes to us as an industrial edition, handsomely printed on book paper. It is a thoroughly creditable issue.

Joseph G. Cannon has been renominated for Congress. His is an iron-clad Republican district, but there is no telling what may happen in politics these days.

Judge Alton B. Parker observes that the news from Maine has cooled the courage of the redoubtable Colonel Roosevelt. Well, it was calculated to do something like that.

In accepting the Democratic nomination for Governor of New Jersey, Woodrow Wilson emphasized six pressing needs. Six only. There is no need of trying to correct all evils at one stroke. Better go at the job at a gait that can be maintained.

According to Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic candidate for Governor of New Jersey, it is much more the duty of the State to regulate corporations than it is the duty of the nation. The Doctor is not taking any "new nationalism" in his. The old variety he doubtless regards as good enough. As one of the foremost students of government in the world, he is well calculated to be a leader of thought in the constantly recurring problem of the relative powers of the State and nation.

The Democrats of New Jersey put their best foot forward when they nominated Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton University, for Governor. The Republicans haven't a man as worthy of being Governor, we feel quite sure. The nomination of Dr. Wilson is a refreshing change from the generally followed custom of nominating a lawyer for Governor. A college president, who has succeeded in governing wisely and well the institution over which he has been called to preside, has served an apprenticeship which stand him in good stead as the Governor of a State.

Godwin was an easy winner over Clark in the Sixth district Democratic primary, but it is said that the Clark men purposely remained away from the polls not intending to be bound by the result. Whether this latter is true or not we don't know, but the vote certainly indicated that Godwin is, of the two men, the popular favorite. From what we have heard we are rather inclined to think that Clark is the abler man of the two, but it was up to the majority of the party in the district to whom they wanted to represent them in Congress and if they did not choose the best man available, why, so much the worse for them. Democracy proceeds on the principle that the majority should prevail.

The following is from the New York World:

Those who favor a single term for American Executives gained a notable recruit yesterday when Gov. Hughes at Syracuse advocated the change as respects the Governorship of New York. His further suggestion that the minor State officers be appointed by the Governor will not be so generally approved, although the two reforms might perhaps come hand in hand.

A Governor or a President ineligible to re-election is divested at the outset of the most powerful incentive to misuse his position. Many failures and scandals have resulted from the fatal ambition of men in office to extend their term. As patronage has grown, the temptation has increased. It is not desirable to have too many elective officers, but better far to endure some inconvenience in this regard than to make our executives the dispensers of more favors than any emperor or king has at his bestowal.

Whatever may be thought about Governors, it is certain that Presidents should not be eligible for more than one term, perhaps of six years. It was fixed at seven years originally by the Constitutional Convention. The present system, with its ever-increasing patronage and power, puts a premium upon ambition and develops in the one place where there should be no suspicion of motives a menace that cannot be lightly ignored.

We believe the law in North Carolina is that a Governor cannot succeed himself though it is admissible for the same man to be governor twice provided his two terms are separated by the term of some other man. To all intents and purposes, however, the single term prevails in this State and the same thing should be true as to the Presidency. Undoubtedly President Taft's efficiency as a chief executive has been impaired because of his desire for the endorsement of his administration involved in a nomination for a second term. And any one who has observed the working of a primary election will agree that there is some force to the contention of Governor Hughes of New York that it might be well for governors to select minor State officers. Certainly there are some state offices about the filling of which the public does not usually concern itself very much.

Oiling the Atlantic.

Pouring oil on the troubled waters will be much more than a metaphor if a plan offered by the United States Hydrographic office is carried out. Its serious proposal is to keep the path between New York and the Northern European ports well oiled, so that the waves may be kept down and passengers may cross in perfect comfort.

The Hydrographic office knows a lot about waves, and claims that nothing is so bad for them as oil. Moreover, oil spreads quickly and thinly over the water, and hence the calming can be done, at small expense. A quart of cheap petroleum an hour for each ship would, they say, do the work in decent weather, and twenty-five dollars per trip ought to cover it easily. With the big liners constantly passing, the part carried away by the ocean currents would be restored without delay.—From the October Wide World Magazine.

A Pretty Freak of Nature.

A strange plant combination was recently flowering in an English garden, says a writer in the October Strand. This was foxglove in bloom, with one Canterbury bell in perfect growth at the top of the stem. The flowers of the foxglove were cream, while the Canterbury bell was deep mauve. The botanist of the local Technical Institute says that "it is a freak of Nature, and worth taking special note of." It is the more strange as the flowers belong to different families.

COLLEGE WAITRESSES

They Make Good Ones and Are Much In Demand.

New York Press.

There is a hotel up in the White Mountains that has only college girls as waitresses. There are more than 50 such girls employed in the hotel, and Gen. M. C. Wentworth, proprietor of the hotel, now says he would not have any other kind of servants. He has applications from Wellesley, Smith, Vassar, Wells and many other girls' colleges for positions as waitresses, and, in fact, has so many candidates he selects his help by a most rigorous examination. The girls are on duty only for breakfast, luncheon and dinner, and have the rest of the day absolutely free. As the majority of these girls rank high in class, and as many children are in the hotel with their parents, they have abundant time to do tutoring in the summer and make large fees in that way. General Wentworth is satisfied with the arrangement and usually encourages the girls to make all the money they can. He has found his scheme successful and observes his guests invariably are satisfied. "There is a superstition," said Wentworth, "a college education unfitts a girl for efficient work, but this is nonsense. I have had experience with all kinds of servants, and if I am given by choice I invariably pick the college girl. Not only does the college girl attend to her work better than the ordinary servant, but her work is much more finished. She has a better idea of what is required and she has a better idea of the place of work in the world."

A girl naturally feels that a fellow's work is in the right place when he entrusts it to her keeping.

DEATH OF A LITTLE GIRL.

Little Mabel Blaylock, daughter of Mr. H. and Bessie Blaylock, of Guilford College, who was taken sick Saturday night with what was thought to be tonsilitis, but which later developed into diphtheria, followed by pneumonia in both lungs, died Wednesday, Sept. 14, at the home of her uncle, S. G. Blaylock, 323 West Lee street, where she was taken by the advice of her physicians and where every medical advantage was given her. She died in a few hours after arriving at the home of her uncle. She was buried at Guilford College Thursday. Our hearts are full of sorrow for the family, who are sorely grieved by the death of little Mabel. She was the idol of the home. May they look to Him who doeth all things well. In some bright day we will understand. M.

Grocery Store Entered.

Thieves entered the grocery store of Mr. W. R. Pickard, West Gaston street, Thursday night and made away with enough groceries to last an average size family several days. A 24 pound sack of flour, 8 pounds of bacon and 8 pounds of lard has been missed. Entrance was effected by prying off a bar placed across the rear door. No clue has been picked up that would lead to the capture of the guilty party or parties.

In Hands of Receiver.

Yesterday at Graham, where he has been holding Alamance court this week, Judge C. C. Lyon appointed Mr. G. B. Roberson receiver of the Holton Drug Company. Pending settlement of the company's affairs Mr. Roberson will keep the store open for the transaction of business.

COIN MAY BRING HIM MILLIONS

Well Known Salisbury-Greensboro Man Thinks He Has Fallen Upon a Long Lost Napoleonic Coin.

Mr. J. V. Wallace, of Salisbury, a member of the firm of Wallace Clothing Company, this city, and of J. V. Wallace & Sons, of Salisbury, believes that he has come into the possession of a coin which will mean a fortune to him. The following from the Salisbury Post will explain:

"The Post yesterday copied an article from London Answers telling of a coin somewhere in the world that is worth millions. It is a five franc piece, and is one of some millions Napoleon had minted and he determined to popularize the issue in an extraordinary way. In one of the coins, folded to a tiny size, was inclosed a note signed by Napoleon and promising the sum of 5,000,000 francs to the finder of that particular coin. Naturally everybody who changed a large piece demanded the new five franc coins in exchange and, as a rule, probed and dug and sounded the metal in eager search for the hidden note. But the years went on, and yet the note did not appear. Napoleon's plighted word is a sacred trust to the French nation, and today the government stands ready to pay the debt, which, with interest, is worth many millions.

The lineup will be, subject to change without notice, as follows:

U. C. T.: Hartsook, 1b; Stroud or Cradock, 2b; Hayes, 3b; Gillian, P; Crutchfield, c; Marley, ss; Westbrook, rf; Boone, lf; Riddick or Wilson, lf; T. P. A.: Bagwell, p; Lynn, c; Marsh, 1b; Hopkins, 2b; Brandt, 3b; McNairy, ss; Gaskins, lf; Wharton, rf; Pritchett, of; Subs, Transon, McLean, Watkins.

The game will be umpired by Messrs. Julius Cone and Charlie Moore.

Before Justice Collins.

In Justice Collins' court yesterday E. L. Goble, was given a hearing on the charge of unlawfully living with a woman, Jennie Bringer. The woman was also charged with the same offense, but she had skipped out. The court reserved its decision as to Goble. There are two other cases against Goble, retailing and peddling without a license. These were continued until Monday.

One May Overcome

constipation permanently by proper personal co-operation with the beneficial effects of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, when required. The forming of regular habits is most important and while endeavoring to form them the assistance of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is most valuable, as it is the only laxative which acts without disturbing the natural functions and without debilitating and it is the one laxative which leaves the internal organs in a naturally healthy condition, thereby really aiding one in that way. To get its beneficial effects, buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is never classed by the well-informed with medicines which make extravagant and unfounded claims to cure habitual constipation without personal co-operation.

Madame Nolan, the noted fashion exponent, will be with us next week to give our patrons the benefit of her advice on this ever interesting topic. A SQUARE-DEAL

Is assured you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and these are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless—even to the most delicate women and children.

Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better agent is used both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles in them, viz.—pure triple-refined glycerine. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and antifermen, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or other organs. Even in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures even the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hang-on-coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

To find out more about the above mentioned diseases and all about the body in health and disease, get the Common Sense Medical Adviser—the People's Schoolmaster in Medicine—revised and up-to-date book of 1000 pages—which treats of diseased conditions and the practical, successful treatment thereof. Cloth-bound sent post-paid on receipt of 31 cents in one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
